Silence

Stephen King

Published in "Moth", 1970

Nothing

but the insect whine of chemicals moving between refrigerator walls:

the mind becomes CONFSSIONAL (enamel)

murder

lurks

I stand with books in hand the feary silence of fury waiting for the furnace to kick on
